

Examen de synthèse : relations internationales

BIBLIOGRAPHIE

Directives

Tous les étudiants qui se soumettent à l'examen de synthèse majeur ou mineur en relations internationales (RI) doivent posséder une connaissance de l'histoire des RI aux XIXe et XXe siècles, et une vision synthèse des principaux sous-champs des RI. La dernière section de la bibliographie propose une liste de manuels d'introduction et d'ouvrages d'histoire à laquelle pourront se référer les candidats dont l'état des connaissances exige une mise à niveau.

Examen de synthèse majeur : lecture des ouvrages ou articles recensés dans la section « théories » (obligatoire) et dans deux des quatre autres sections de la bibliographie.

Examen de synthèse mineur : lecture des ouvrages ou articles recensés dans une des cinq sections de la bibliographie : théories des RI; économie politique internationale; études de sécurité; politique étrangère; organisations internationales.
